

Town of Mashpee Sticker Application

2022/2023 Season

Only Mashpee residential property owners and year-round renters are eligible to purchase stickers. Visitors may purchase one-week beach passes and one-trip transfer station passes.

Pay online by credit card, or order by mail.
Stickers and/or passes will be mailed beginning June 1, 2022.

ABOUT STICKERS, PASSES AND PERMITS

FY23 TRANSFER STATION STICKER (valid July 1, 2022 – June 30, 2023)

A Sticker or Pass is required to use the Mashpee Transfer Station for household trash and recyclables. Only two (2) stickers per household are allowed. Visitors may only purchase one-trip passes.

FY23 RECYCLING STICKER (valid July 1, 2022 – June 30, 2023)

For recycling only (no household trash), a recycling sticker is required. If you are purchasing a Transfer Station sticker, you do not need a Recycling sticker on the same vehicle.

2022 RECREATION (BEACH) STICKER (valid June 2022 – September 5, 2022)

During the summer season, a sticker is required to use the three public beaches in Mashpee (South Cape Beach, Attaquin Park, and John's Pond). Visitors to Mashpee may only purchase weekly passes to use the beaches. Tribal members may access the beach by displaying their tribal sticker on the vehicle or showing their Tribal ID. (No trailers allowed at John's Pond.)

2022 BOAT RAMP STICKERS - Transfer Station Stickers, Recycling Stickers, Recreation Stickers and Boat Ramp Stickers are accepted as proof of residency for Boat Ramp parking. Boat Ramp parking is on a first come, first served basis. Veteran Beach passes may not be used at the boat ramps.

2022/2023 SHELLFISH LICENSE (valid April 1, 2022 – March 31, 2023)

A permit is required for the taking of shellfish from the waters of Mashpee. Users of a family permit may include the permit holder, their spouse, and their children under the age of 18 years. A senior permit is available for residents 62 and older.

Non-residents who do not own property in Mashpee may purchase a permit at the non-resident rate, provided they reside elsewhere in Massachusetts. Tribal members may shellfish with their Tribal ID.

2022 SECONSETT ISLAND ONLY (valid June 2022 – September 5 2022)

Nonresidents who own moorings off Seconsett Island, or Falmouth residents entitled to shellfish there, may purchase parking passes for $100.00. The pass is VALID ONLY FOR SECONSETT ISLAND.
